

RICHMOND WANTS AN APPROPRIATION.

Failure of Congress to Improve Harbor a Disappointment.

THE FUNERAL OF DR. WISE.

Narrow Escape of Patrick McDonough from Death in a Quagmire—The City Council and Southern Bell Telephone Company in a Snarl—The Street Car Problem—A Spirited and Hotly Contested Battle For Governorial Honors Now Being Fought in the State.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 22.—The failure of Congress to secure an appropriation from Congress to improve the harbor here is the general subject of conversation, and there is much disappointment expressed. A gentleman who has just returned from Washington said today:

"The reason Richmond failed to get the appropriation is very plain, and is being openly discussed in Washington. The fact is the committee sent from Richmond to Washington were composed altogether of Democrats. They are leading citizens in their community, but they have no pull at all with the river and harbors committee, which is largely Republican."

"It is said that if the leading Republicans of Richmond were sent the result would have been entirely different. I believe that this is true."

CAPT. LAMB WILL TRY.
Capt. John Lamb, who returned from Washington last night for the Christmas holidays, said today that he would make a strong effort to have the bill amended.

DR. WISE'S FUNERAL.
Capt. Lamb will attend the services incident to the burial of the late Dr. Richard A. Wise, which takes place in Hollywood cemetery here tomorrow morning.

A NARROW ESCAPE.
Mr. Patrick McDonough, a well known saloon keeper of this city, had a narrow escape from death yesterday while duck hunting down the river with a party of friends.

They were exploring a marsh when Mr. McDonough became separated from the others and was soon hopelessly lost. While wandering about he stepped into a quagmire and sunk so deeply that he was unable to extricate himself.

He remained in that situation until he was almost frozen to death. Fortunately, before it was too late, his friends, who had been searching for him, found him. He was brought home, and is rapidly recovering from his unpleasant experience.

A HOPELESS SNARL.
The City Council, the street railways and the Southern Bell Telephone Company are in a hopeless snarl here, and no man can foresee the end of it all.

The Bell Company is operating here without a franchise, and by virtue of proceedings now pending in the Supreme Court of the United States.

THE STREET CAR PROBLEM.
As to the street car problem, it is doubtful if any man understands it. There is a fight on between the two companies, and the Council is divided on almost every question that comes up.

The public hope that the active competition between the two lines will result in lowering of prices.

The various enterprises of which President John Skelton Williams, of the Seaboard Air Line, is president, of which the Traction Street Railway Company is one, have been of vast benefit to Richmond, and when the above mentioned contests are settled the city will have more conveniences than almost any other of its size.

GOVERNMENTAL HONORS.
By far the most spirited and hotly-contested battle for gubernatorial honors that has taken place in Virginia for many years is just now beginning to attract the serious attention of Democratic leaders, and immediately after the holidays it promises to take the first place in the multitude of public matters that will crowd the political arena during the coming year.

Attorney-General Montague and Congressman Swanson are everywhere looked upon as the leading candidates, and it is between these two young aspirants and their friends that the battle will rage fiercest. They are both on the alert for votes and are leaving no stone unturned to secure the good will of the Democratic electors of the State. Both hail from the same Congressional district, and the struggle between them is made all the more interesting for that reason.

The friends of Lieutenant-Governor Echols say that, in the event of a long-drawn-out controversy in the convention, the Valley statesman would have an admirable chance to capture the plum, as they believe he is looked upon with much favor throughout the State. The friends of Messrs. Elyson and Marshall are not discouraged at the outlook for their favorites and express the belief that each stand a good chance.

SECRETARY LAWLESS PLEASED.
Secretary Joseph T. Lawless is in receipt of many letters from friends in different sections of the State expressing their pleasure at his announcement of his candidacy for chairman of the State Democratic Committee next year, and pledging him their loyal support for the position. The announcement has also received the most favorable comment from the press of the State, and especially in the Tidewater section.

DR. BARRINGER RESIGNS.
The department of public instruction has learned with deep regret of the resignation of Dr. Barringer as chairman of the faculty of the university, as the institution reached the high water mark of its success under his splendid management. While a native of North Carolina, Dr. Barringer was educated at Kenmore High School in Amherst, the University of Virginia and subsequently at German universities, and is one of the most distinguished educators in the State.

RANDOLPH-MACON.
A DEACON ORDAINED—THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS.

Ashland, Va., Dec. 22.—A very interesting and impressive ceremony was conducted in the college chapel Monday night, the event being the ordination of Rev. J. W. Lilliston to the office of a deacon.

Mr. Lilliston was elected a deacon by the Virginia Conference at Norfolk last November, but, on account of an oversight, was not ordained with the others. He was assigned to Charles City circuit, from whence he came here to receive his ordination at the hands of Bishop Granberry.

Dr. W. G. Starr, Dr. W. E. Edwards and Rev. W. H. Atwill assisted in the service.

After a clear and vigorous address by the bishop, Mr. Atwill presented the candidate.

Dr. Starr read the "epistle," and Dr. Edwards read the "gospel," after which Bishop Granberry ordained Mr. Lilliston a deacon of the M. E. Church, South.

The Christmas holidays begin today and end with Tuesday, January, 1st, 1901. The greater number of the students left yesterday.

The intermediate examinations are announced to begin on January 22.

FRANKTOWN.
MR. TANKARD ILL-CONSTITUTIONAL LEGISLATION.
(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Franktown, Va., Dec. 22.—Since the last notes from this section the Methodist conference has met and reappointed Rev. George H. Ray, D. D., to the pastorate here. Dr. Ray is a faithful and unwearied laborer in the Church and has a strong hold upon the people of the Eastern Shore. Rev. Messrs. Blankenship and Barrett have also been returned to their respective charges to the great gratification of their people at Capeville and Cape Charles City.

Rev. Jos. E. Potts, takes the place of Rev. Whitmore and Rev. Mr. Winn that of Rev. W. J. Twitney, both of whom have been kindly received by their people. They live in Accomac and preach in parts of Northampton, so that there are five Methodist ministers who preach regularly in the county. There are about 1,311 Methodists in Northampton, or nearly 10 per cent. of the entire population. These are communicants and represent close on to one-half of the entire population of the county.

MR. JNO. W. TANKARD.
This gentleman, who has been influential in the county for more than three-fourths of a century, is quite ill at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. J. H. Roberts. Mr. Tankard is in his eightieth year, but he has been a leading man in all that promotes the prosperity of this section. He is the president of the board of trustees of Margaret Academy, now situated in Onancock, and has been a favorite school teacher with the Eastern Shore people for more than a century. His is eminent both in character and culture, and is well-beloved in both these counties. Mr. Tankard's friends are anxiously awaiting the outcome of this sickness.

CONSTITUTIONAL LEGISLATION.
Our skillful and accomplished member of the Virginia House of Delegates, who resides in this town, is preparing to go to Richmond to the approaching extra session of the Legislature.

There is no more active and industrious representative than Hon. John E. Nottingham, of Northampton county. There is some speculation as to who will be the member of the constitutional convention from Northampton. Some favor Judge Kendall, while others think of that talented young lawyer, Mr. Otho Mears; but others think that Hon. John E. Nottingham is as safe a man as any in the county. He favors a division of the school tax, so that it may be seen how much the black man pays to the education of his children, and that all taxable colored people should be made to pay a tax for the education of that race. He also thinks there should be an educational and property qualification to the franchise.

If the negroes were eliminated from politics he would gravitate to his true position in relation to the Anglo-Saxons; and there would be fewer nameless crimes and consequently fewer lynchings, both North and South.

ROANOKE.
MARRIAGE OF MISS FIERY AND MR. BOWYER.

Roanoke, Va., Dec. 22.—The residence of Rev. Samuel M. Fiery, No. 340 Sixth avenue S. W., was the scene at high noon last Tuesday of a pretty and interesting marriage. The contracting parties were his pretty daughter, Miss Elizabeth Goodall Fiery, and Mr. John David Bowyer, of the Stone Printing Company, formerly of Lexington. The father of the bride officiated. Miss Kate Fiery, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. L. S. McChesney best man. The parlor was beautifully decorated, the couple standing under a lovely floral bell during the ceremony. Miss Mayme Becker played Mendelssohn's wedding march and Lange's "Love Song" during the ceremony. The bride wore a handsome traveling costume of brown cloth and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The couple left on the 1:50 p. m. train for the Northern cities.

LEXINGTON.
THE NATURAL BRIDGE SOLD TO RICHMOND SYNDICATE.

Lexington, Va., Dec. 21.—Natural Bridge has again changed ownership, and $50,000 was the consideration. The county clerk has entered of record a deed which conveyed from "Natural Bridge Forest Company" the property to a syndicate now known as "Natural Bridge Development Company," composed of a number of prominent capitalists. Thirty thousand dollars in cash was paid, and the new company assumed, in addition, the payment of a trust of $20,000 held by the Kneakerbocker Trust Company, of New York City. The deed conveyed certain tracts of land lying and situated in the county of Rockbridge, known as the Jefferson, Shindale, Cloyd, Grim, Trevet and Lackey tracts, on which is situated the Natural Bridge, and containing 425 acres, more or less.

Mrs. Nellie H. Parsons signed the deed as president of the "Natural Bridge Forest Company." The closing negotiations took place here yesterday afternoon. The deed was represented by Mr. Lewis C. Williams, an attorney of Richmond; Mr. Charles H. Paxton, of Fancy Hill, Rockbridge county, and Mr. L. J. Marcuse, of Richmond, the latter having had an option on the property since November.

The hotel is not included in the sale, as it is the property of the "Glasgow Investment Company," and is in litigation.
